

Miss Minnesota

FEES FOR LOCAL COMPETITIONS

New License fee (insurance fee – see below) is due with new application to hold a local program (the Licensure Agreement Fee of $200 is due with the New License Request application.

$200 Licensure Agreement fee to State for insurance purposes. This fee is due every year with the Licensure Agreement – it covers local titleholders/committee no matter how many titles you give away at local program. This contract and $200 fee is due every year.

MISS FEES

$400 – Candidate Fee – due 30 days after competition

$300 – for second candidate if running a dual competition – due 30 days after competition

$200 – for third & fourth candidate each if crowning more than 2 – due 30 days after competition

$500 Minimum Scholarship (will be reduced to $250 for short term titleholders); $250 minimum on new local – dual competition – one time only. Second year you must give $500 or higher for your winner.

TEEN FEES

$300 – Contestant Fee – due 30 days after competition

$200 – for second

$150 - third and fourth contestants – due 30 days after competition

*Miss Minnesota is free to a new local organization in Minnesota the first year

*Miss Minnesota is free to her sponsoring local she won her state title with

*There is no fee to have Miss Minnesota's Outstanding Teen

MISC FEES

*Venue fees (cost to rent facilities to hold local program)

*Piano rental (potential fee)

*Judges meals (usually 5 judges and one judges chairman) – this can be donated by a restaurant

*Food for candidates back stage

*Hotel donated if Miss Minnesota is traveling a distance and needs to spend the night

Money can be raised:

*Silent Auction

*Donations from civic organizations within community

*Ticket sales

MISC NOTES

Both Teen and Miss Titleholders are required to attend Candidate Orientation in spring
Miss attend with local directors only, unless Miss Minnesota Executive Board invites parents
Teens attend with local teen director and at least one parent

Miss are required to stay at host hotel during entire week of Miss Minnesota competition
Teens are “requested” to stay at host hotel (at their expense) during time of teen competition, dates to be determined.